

15th Conference on Health Care of the Chinese in North America
Sunday, October 10, 2010

Time	Schedule
7:30-8:30AM	Breakfast . Exhibit
8:30-9:15 AM	Henry B. Woo Memorial Lecture What You Can Do to Eliminate the Greatest Health Disparity in the U.S.? Samuel So, MBBS
9:20-10:35 AM	Breakout Session A: Palliative Care and Cancer Pain Palliative Medicine and Chinese Culture Victor T. Chang, MD, FACP Fundamentals of Palliative Medicine for Chinese Patients Solomon S. Liao, MD Breakout Session B: Neurological Disease Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, and Other Neurodegenerative Diseases in Chinese Americans Steven Z. Chao, MD, PhD Stroke in North American Chinese Samuel Yip, MD, PhD, FRCPC
10:35-10:45 AM	Break . Exhibit
10:45-12:00 PM	General Session: Pharmacogenomics and Personalized Medicine Personalized Medicine for Kidney Disease Li-Li Hsiao, MD, PhD, FACP The Benefits and Challenges of Genomics and Personalized Medicine for North American Chinese Vivian Ota Wang, PhD
12:00-1:00 PM	Lunch , Exhibit
1:00-2:15 PM	General Session: Tuberculosis Issues Multidrug-Resistant Tuberculosis Update Including New Diagnostics Steven K. Hwang, MD Tuberculosis in Canada, with Focus on Children and Adolescents Ian Kitai, MB BCh, FRCPC
2:20-3:35 PM	General Session: Health Care: An Evolving Landscape Health Care Reform: Overview and Implication for Health Care of the Chinese in North America Rogan Kersh, PhD Health Care Reform and Closing Ethnic Disparities Winston F. Wong, MD, MS Health Care Reform Bill and its Impact on Minority Health Congresswoman Judy Chu, PhD
3:35-3:45PM	Conference Closing Remarks
4:00-5:30PM	FCMS Conference Summation Meeting with CAMASC (For FCMS members organization only)